

RHETORIC, POLITICS AND CONCEPTUAL CHANGE

Edited by Kari Palonen & Anthoula Malkopoulou

Kari Palonen & Anthoula Malkopoulou (eds.)
RHETORIC, POLITICS AND CONCEPTUAL CHANGE (2011)

ISBN 978-952-67211-3-2

Contents

Kari Palonen Anthoula Malkopoulou	Introduction	1
Pantelis Bassakos	Ambiguitas Instead of Ambigere; Or, What Has Become of Inventio of Hobbes	4
Kari Palonen	Making Sense of Parliamentary Jargon. The Need for Parliamentary Literacy	13
Georgios Karampelas	Modernity, or the Rhetorical Domain: Remarks On (and Beyond) Fredric Jameson	26
Anthoula Malkopoulou	Rhetorical Reform of Voting Rights in Nineteenth-Century France	36
Eira Juntti	Images of Ideal Citizens and Gender in mid-19th Century Finland	48
Anna Kronlund	“9/11” as a Limit for Rhetoric? The Contemporary ‘State of Exception’ Discussions in the Context of the United States	61
Sia Spiliopoulou Åkermark	Understanding the Multiple Justifications of Minority Protection	72
Dimitris Christopoulos	Institutional Discourse on Minority Rights by European Organisations at the Dawn of the 21st Century	86
Kostas A. Lavdas	Norms and Cooperation in International Relations: 95 Lessons from EU politics	96
Contributors		109