

PAPERS AND MONOGRAPHS OF THE FINNISH INSTITUTE AT ATHENS VOL. XIII

THE PROVINCE STRIKES BACK
IMPERIAL DYNAMICS
IN THE EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN

Edited by Björn Forsén and Giovanni Salmeri

PMFIA XIII

Björn Forsén and Giovanni Salmeri (eds.),

The Province Strikes Back. Imperial Dynamics in the Eastern Mediterranean (2008)

ISBN 978-951-98806-8-6

Contents:

- Björn Forsén and
Giovanni Salmeri,
Vincent Gabrielsen, Ideology and Practice of Empire (1-13)
Provincial Challenges to the Imperial Centre in Achaemenid and Seleucid Asia Minor (15-44)
- Cédric Brélaz, Maintaining Order and Exercising Justice (45-64)
in the Roman Provinces of Asia Minor (65-81)
- Suraiya Faroqi, Local Elites and Government Intervention in the Province of Anadolu (83-105)
- Angelos Chaniotis, What Difference Did Rome Make?
The Cretans and the Roman Empire (107-122)
- Maria Georgopoulou, Crete between the Byzantine and Venetian
Empires (123-136)
- Antonis Anastasopoulos, Centre–Periphery Relations: Crete in the Eighteenth Century (137-155)
- Giovanni Salmeri, Empire and Collective Mentality: The
Transformation of eutaxia from the Fifth Century
BC to the Second Century AD (157-185)
- John Haldon, Provincial Elites, Central Authorities: Problems in Fiscal and Military Management in the Byzantine
State (157-185)
- Björn Forsén, Empires and Migrational Trends: The Case of Roman and Ottoman Greece (187-200)
- Ilias Arnaoutoglou, ‘διά δόξαν ἐκείνων καὶ κλέος τοῦ ἔθνους’ The Philomousos Society of Athens and Antiquities
(201-214)