

CULT MATERIAL
FROM ARCHAEOLOGICAL DEPOSITS TO
INTERPRETATION OF EARLY GREEK RELIGION

Edited by Petra Pakkanen and Susanne Bocher

Contents

Acknowledgements		i
Petra Pakkanen and Susanne Bocher	Introduction	1
I Cult and Material: Tradition, Theory and Materiality
Johannes Siapkas	Worshipping Archaeologies – Theoretical Landscape in the Archaeological Study of Greek Religion and Cult Deposits	9
Petra Pakkanen	Depositing Cult – Considerations on What Makes a Cult Deposit	25
Susanne Bocher	Ash, Bones, Votives – Analysing the Black Strata in Early Greek Sanctuaries Two Examples from Olympia – the Schwarze Schicht and the Altar of Artemis	49
II Time and Material: Perspectives to Early Cult
Melissa Veters	Private and Communal Ritual at Post-Palatial Tiryns	65
Gudrun Klebinder-Gauß	Interpreting Votive Offerings from Early Archaic Deposits at the Artemision of Ephesos	107
Lena Sjögren	‘Meeting with Others and the Gods’: the Social Uses of Early Cretan Cult-Sites	123
Berit Wells† edited by Petra Pakkanen, Arto Penttinen and Jari Pakkanen	New Beginnings? Preparations of Renewal of Cult at Kalaureia and Asine	137